AUDITORIUM

09.30 – 11.00

CD-ROM EXPERIENCE

Selling CD-ROM – The Scandinavian Experience
M. Johanson, Fitzes Booksellers, Sweden

CD-ROM in a University Library Setting: The Experience of the First Year
J. M. Pendlebury, M. G. Lewis, University of Sussex, UK

First Experience with CD-ROM XA
P. Ghislandi, Centro Televisivo Universitario, Italy

Optical Products in European Libraries and Information Centres: Results of a Survey
D. I. Raitt, The Electronic Library, The Netherlands
C. C. Chen, Simmons College, USA

11.10 – 12.40

HYPERMEDIA

Promoting Publishing: Some Problems of Protection
E. Davenport, University of Strathclyde, UK

Navigation in Hypertext: Design Issues
A. Simpson, HUSAT Research Centre, UK

HYPER-TOPO – A System for the Automatic Construction of a Hypertext-Base with Intertextual Relations
R. Kuhlen, F. Yetim, Universitat Konstanz, Germany

Evaluating the Feasibility of Using HyperCard as an Interface Prototyping Tool with Reference to Online Services: The Impact of ISDN
M. Percival, University of Strathclyde, UK

13.15 – 14.30

NATIONAL FORUM LANGUAGE SESSIONS

Italian Language Session
Dutch Language Session
(Venue to be announced in final programme)

14.50 – 16.20

INFORMATION ANALYSIS, EDUCATION IN DISECIPLES AND EXPERIENCE

Information Analysis in Traditional Academic Disciplines in the Humanities
W. T. Claassen, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa

Online Information Services in Schools
L. A. Clyde, Western Australian CAE, Australia

Online Adult Education in the Light of Open University Experience
R. Thomas, The Open University, UK

Experiences Searching Foreign Language Databases at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and Overseas Development Administration Libraries
P. Griffiths, Foreign and Commonwealth Office Library, UK

AUIDTORIUM

16.30 – 18.00

LIBRARY AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

New Technologies and Information Delivery Systems
J. J. Regazzi, Engineering Information Inc., USA

Computerization in Museums: Databases to Image Bases
P. Wentz, East Carolina University, USA

Combined Use of Internal Databases
CD-ROMs and Online Databases

Problems and Solutions

H. Mido, International Agency for Research on Cancer, France

Merging Disparate Technologies: Online Library Catalogues and CD-ROM Periodical Indexes
T. D. Web, University of Hawaii, USA

CONFERENCE ROOM 1

16.30 – 18.00

DATABASES AND DATABASES

Online Legal Databases: Experiences in the Italian Scenariso
E. Valle, Csi-Feemonte, Italy

THERIAQUE: Quality Information on Drugs, Essential For Their Optimal Use, Prescription and Dispensation
C. Husson, S. Mieney, CNIMH, France

Approach for an Optimal Access to Data, Sources for Environmental Chemicals
K. Voigl, J. Benz, A. Eder, GSF, FRG

Which Database? A Procedure for Defining an Organisational “Cluster”
F. H. Falk, BKT Information Services, UK

Review of Japanese Databases and their Usage in Europe
S. King, J. Sisson, British Library Japanese Information Service, UK
H. Haon, M. J. F. Monro, CNRS/INIS, France
D. Moench, U. Wattenberg, GMD, FRG
H. Greutker, University of Lund, Sweden

20.00

ONLINE BANQUET — CHAMPAGNE SUITE, NOVOTEL LONDON